EXALTED ORIENTALS Making Studious Tour Of WHITE MAN'S WORLD

CHINESE COMMISSIONERS PASS THROUGH

Starting on a tour of the United States and Europe to last perhaps more than a year, the two Chinese Commissioners and retinue, to study the political system of the different countries and other matters that may be used to advantage in the advancement of China and her people, are being entertained by Consul Chang Tso Pan today. After being escorted from the Hackfeld wharf, where the Siberia arrived this morning, the party was taken to the Chinese Consulate, at the corner of Victoria and Young streets, where an informal reception was held. Later a call was made upon Governor Carter, the Commissioners and the others going from there to the Chinese United Society and shortly before 1 o'clock returning to the Consul's home, where lunch was served. The dignitaries are H. E. Tuan Fang, H. I. C. M.'s High Commissioner, and H. E. Tai Hing Chi, H. I. C. M.'s High Commissioner. Those of the party are as follows: Mrs. Lum-Shee, Gee Hing, Tong Fung Shu, Tsung Shia Ling, Kwan Min Chun, Fung Chung Kuang, Sao-Ke A. Sze, Y. A. Sze, Luh Chung Yu, Kouan Chung Ping, Kwan King Lun, Kwang Pao Lun, Mak Hung Chun, Lung Kien Chang, Wong Ye, Wong Fung Ko, Wu Kuang Kien, Tong We Yuen, Woo Chin Shun, Chen Huan Chang, Sze Kwock Sun, Sze Yu, Chen Ke, Tso Hok Yin, Lin Yo Tseng, Liu Ku Yen, Kin Ting, Tsai le, She Ching Ko, Yao Kwan Shung, Low Liang Ki-en, Pan Lun Sin, Tien Woo Chao, Kuang Yu, Yo Chan Chu, Tang Tain, Chu Lun, Chen Ye, Liang Chi Sin, Tong Nan, Wong Pao Sum, Ow Yang Yuk, King Huan Chang, Wong Chun Chao, Y. O. Tong, Wan Bing Chung, Chan Sin Can, L. Y. Sze, Yoo Chu-nang Om, Hok Wan Liang, Hsia Ming Ko, Tai Chung Chi, Jen Hong Nie, Kao Euh Kien, Cui Zai King. The distinguished guests of Hawaii today were received at the wharf by Colonel Soper, Captain Rose and Lieutenant Cummins of the National Guard; Li Cheung, secretary to the Consul, the Chinese merchants of Honolulu, and the school children from the different institutions. As the Commissioners came down the gang plank the children waved hundreds of (Continued on Page 4.)

Molekians On Hakalau

Hilo, Jan. 2.—F. B. McStocker, representing J. B. Castle and the Molekian farmers who desire to settle in Hawaii, made a hurried trip to Hilo last week to see Manager Ross of the Hakalau Plantation with a view of a possible settlement by the Russians of the Kailua-Wailua lands soon to be opened for homesteads. The land in question, which comprises 1800 acres of arable land, is at present under lease to the Hakalau plantation. The lease will expire June 15, 1906, and Mr. McStocker's visit was for the purpose of entering into some arrangement with the plantation regarding planting and grinding contracts. Manager Ross was favorably disposed to the movement, which would insure a permanent laboring class for his plantation, but referred Mr. McStocker to the directors of the company in respect to any special concessions which may be desired. While not accomplishing the purpose of his mission, Mr. McStocker returned with friendly assurances of assistance, and it is understood the matter will be taken up with the directors either in Honolulu or upon Mr. Castle's visit to San Francisco within a few weeks. Mr. McStocker stated that the negotiations for the settlement of the Kailua lands on Kaula by the Russians had not fallen through, the only difficulty being a hitch in working out the details of the scheme. The Hakalau settlement proposition will be a distinct project.—Hilo Tribune.

JOHNSON CONFESSES TO WAIALUA MURDER

KILLED BABY WHARTON FOR REVENGE

The Waialua baby murderer has confessed. Frank Johnson, who has for years, off and on, lived with the family of Henry Wharton, of Waialua, this morning admitted to County Sheriff A. M. Brown, Deputy Sheriff Oscar Cox and Detective Doyle that he killed little three-year-old Seaman Wharton on Wednesday last and that he cut the body into pieces. Johnson declares that he committed the crime for revenge on the mother of the child. He states that he had a row with Mrs. Anna Wharton, about Christmas time, as appears further in this account. He says that the quarrel was over liquor. The murdered child's mother would not send out for liquor for him, refusing to have drinking in her house. Johnson was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Oscar Cox of Waialua at the home of the Whartons, whither he had gone to evade suspicion, after doing the baby to death and dissecting the body with a pen knife in a lonely spot near a cane field not far from the little one's home. Johnson had even pretended to help in the search for the missing child, all the while bearing under his buttoned coat a shirt stained with the blood of his victim. Sheriff Brown and Detective Doyle went down to Waialua yesterday morning to investigate the matter. Johnson then declared his innocence. About half past nine o'clock this morning the closely guarded prisoner in the Waialua jail, confronted by the Sheriff, Cox and Doyle, broke down after a terrible night, and made a full confession of the heinous crime, and when asked why he had been guilty of such an atrocious deed, he replied that the mother of the baby had made him very angry and he wanted to get even with her; that he did it for revenge. The prisoner will be brought to Honolulu on this evening's train. Great credit is due the police for their prompt action in this matter. The self-confessed murder will be speedily brought to trial. The awful details of the crime and its detection appear herewith very fully, contained in interview with Mr. Henry Wharton, Dr. Hubert Wood, whose story reads like a horrid fiction and yet is all too true; the County Sheriff and Criminalist Chester Doyle. A Bulletin reporter went to Waialua last night to obtain these interviews and they relate the fearful story, a story unequalled in the criminal history of Hawaii for its gruesome detail.

ROBINSON SOUNDS NOTE OF ECONOMY

The Territorial Grand Jury was this morning sworn and charged by Judge Robinson, and is now ready to begin its work for the term. While the special venire, which it was found necessary to call to complete the jury, was returnable at 9:30 a. m., two of the jurors, Wm. Mutch and J. F. Low, failed to show up and the matter had to be postponed until 10 o'clock.

Just before the jury was sworn another of the innumerable defects of the list prepared by the Jury Commissioners was made apparent. J. J. Lecker arose and stated that his name was given as G. J. Lecker in the list. He was consequently excused.

The remaining Grand Jurors were as follows: F. E. Blake, J. J. Byrne, Clinton Hutchins, Fred. M. Lewis, J. S. Low, O. R. Olsen, Chas. S. Wright, F. L. Waldron, Aug. Ahrens, W. A. Bowen, S. C. Dwight, R. L. Gilliland, Wm. H. Heine, J. T. Holloway, F. S. Lyman, Wm. Mutch, E. E. Paxton, M. Philip, Jas. W. Robertson.

After swearing the jurors Judge Robinson delivered his charge. The charge was a very lengthy one, going into the duties of the Grand Jury, the rules of evidence and other legal matters with much thoroughness and detail. The Court especially admonished the jury to be as economical as far as was consistent with the proper discharge of its duties.

W. A. Bowen was sworn as foreman and Charles Clark as bailiff. The jurors then proceeded in a body, under the direction of Attorney General Peters, who will attend its sessions, to the old throne room, where that body will hereafter hold its meetings. It is not thought that the Grand Jury will have much to do, at least, not for the present time, and it will therefore meet probably only about once a week.

FORAKER FAVORS Revenue Bill OFFERED BY KUHIO

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS OF DELEGATE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19, 1905. Editor of the Bulletin:—Consultations with members of Congress in regard to my bill for setting apart seventy-five per cent of the Federal revenues from Hawaii for the local expenditure, have formed the most important part of our work for the past week. The question of what form the bill should take has been carefully gone over with Chairman Hamilton, who is Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd., Stock and Bond Brokers. Offices: Cor. COMMISSIONERS ASK CARTER FOR GOVERNMENT RECORDS

"The Chinese Commissioners asked me to thank the people here for the good reception they had been given," said Governor Carter this afternoon. "They said Hawaii was a very beautiful place. The Commissioners stated that they were making the trip to investigate. They requested that they had only such a short stay here, and asked that we furnish them with departmental reports, copies of our laws and legislative proceedings and so forth. "These are the documents we are going to give them," said the Governor, pointing to a massive pile of books and pamphlets. "Do you think they will ever read all that?" asked the reporter. "Oh, no," said the Governor. "They have clerks or secretaries to do that. There were three or four with them, who spoke excellent English. I expect that a Territory or State is assigned to one of these. He goes through the documents and makes a synopsis of them, which he gives the commissioners."

Stelzer, of curl fame, has just received a long letter from M. F. Stelzer, 2813 Lowe avenue, Chicago, asking for Hawaiian postal cards and concluding as follows: "I have heard much of Hawaii. I believe your little island would be well worth visiting. I am 23 years old. I am soon going to be married and when I'm married I hope to go to Honolulu on my honeymoon. Ha, ha! Ha, ha! Ha!" The schooner Ada will return next week to her old run between Honolulu and Lahaina, leaving this port every Tuesday.
